DR. H. W. REED-26 YEARS OF SERVICE

Harold W. Reed's retirement marks his 26th year of service here at Olivet.

The years have moved swiftly and in the words of Anne Morrow Lindbergh, "one is happy doing things, but there is a different kind of happiness that comes from fully realizing afterward the things done: the 'recollection-in-tranquility' feeling that comes when you are alone and quiet and you see your experiences as a whole." We are much too near many exciting and wonderful things that are happening on Olivet's campus today to view all from 'recollections' or in 'tranquility.'

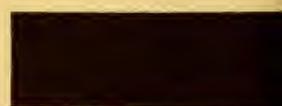

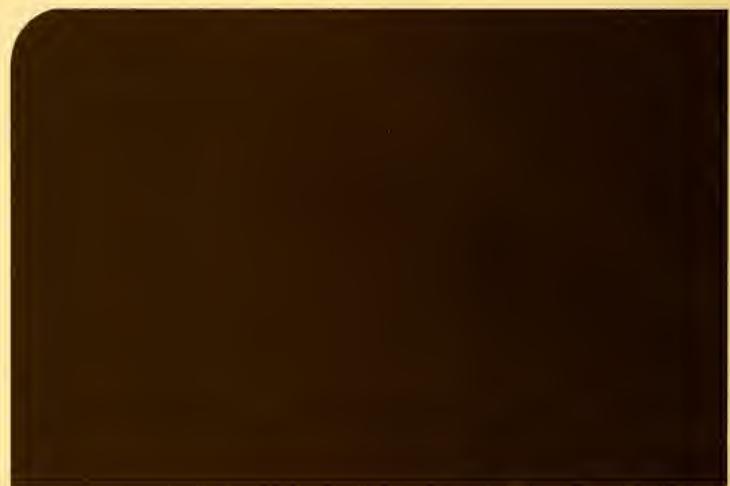

Much has happened during this 26-year period. From out of the darkness of those beginning days came a bright and shining promise — GOD IS ABLE! The scope of our program was broadened, dreams and plans were realized, aims and objectives were fulfilled.

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy Peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, let me sow pardon;
Where there is doubt, let me sow faith;
Where there is despair, let me sow hope;
Where there is darkness, let me sow light;
Where there is sadness, let me sow joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may
Not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;
Not so much seek to be understood, as to understand;
Not so much seek to be loved, as to love;
For it is in giving, that we receive;
It is in pardoning, that we are pardoned;
It is in dying, that we are born to eternal life.

LINKLETTER AND SCHULLER SPEAK AT ONC

Art Linkletter is coming to Olivet Nazarene Hall on November 2 at 8:00 p.m., is sponsored by the Cultural Affairs Committee of the college.

A television and radio star for more than 30 years, Art has performed in two of the longest running shows in broadcasting history, "House Party," and "People are Funny."

The former day-time CBS program ran for 23 years and won an Emmy Award for best day-time show on television. "People are Funny," shows on night-time NBC for 19 years, was in the top ten rating list for most of that time and won three Emmy nominations.

In addition, Art has starred in numerous specials, including Inside Beverly Hills, Christmas in The Holy Land, Two Yankees in Mexico, Kid's Eye View of Washington, and Children of Zora.

Two dozen motion pictures, and a half-dozen television dramas are part of his acting career.

Art has been writing books since 1950, and the list now includes ten, of which, Kids Say The Darnedest Thing is best known. It is one of the top 15 best sellers in American publishing history, and was No. 1 for two straight years on the non-fiction list.

Seven honorary doctorate degrees from colleges and universities have been awarded Art for his humanitarian work and his interest in youth. He has been named Speaker of the Year in 1969 by the International Platform Associates, Salesman of the Year, Grandfather of the Year, and his national charity work has rewarded him with citations as Chairman of National Easter Seal Week, National Heart Week, National Cancer Week, National Arthritis Foundation, Foster Parents Plan, Goodwill Industries, and YMCA and Boy Scout leadership.

Art is on the President's Commission for the United Nations, and on the Presidential Commission to Improve Reading in the U.S. He is also president of the National Coordinating Council on Drug Abuse Education and Information, Inc., headquartered in Washington, D.C.

A business man with interests in oil, cattle, publishing, home building, land development, ranching in Australia, and manufacturing, he also serves on a half-dozen boards of directors.

His chief interest today is his work in the crusade against drug abuse. He writes, speaks, and broadcasts from coast to coast in the fight against the drug epidemic threatening our nation.

Robert H. Schuller, the author of the book of the summer, SELF-LOVE: THE DYNAMIC FORCE OF SUCCESS, will be speaking at Olivet Hall Thursday at 11:00

Schuller is the pastor of the Garden Grove Community Church in Garden Grove, California, and has a Sunday morning TV program, "Hour of Power."

In 1955 Schuller was given a small sum of money by the Board of Domestic Missions and sent to Orange County, California, to establish a church. He then began to serve as a drive-in minister. Later, with the help of Richard Neutra, he designed the first church, a drive-in church of its kind. This church has developed into one of the great church organizations of the nation.

Besides SELF-LOVE, Schuller has written other books: MOVE AHEAD WITH POSSIBILITY, THINKING GOD'S WAY TO THE GOOD LIFE, YOUR FUTURE IS YOUR FRIEND.

Schuller was born on September 16, 1926. He achieved his B.A. at Hope College in 1947, and his B.D. at Western Seminary in 1950. He has a wife, Arville, and three children, Sheila, Robert, and Jeanne Anne.

Festival Starts Today

The 1974 Festival of Youth in Mission is coming to Olivet Nazarene College Oct. 30-Nov. 1, featuring the mission of Christ depicted in multi-media, song, and spoken word.

Each Nazarene college campus will be visited this fall by the festival which is the third thrust of a combined missionary endeavor by the Departments of World Missions, Home Missions, and Youth.

Each three-day festival will present the mission of the church in a new and unique approach, to motivation, recruitment, and total mission.

The festival's aim is to challenge Olivet Nazarene College students to "a lasting life-style of Christian commitment which may be carried through variety of channels."

The festivals will include interviews for service in the Student Missionary Corps, sponsored by the Department of World Missions; the Lost and Found, sponsored by the Department of Youth; and Christian Action Teams sponsored by the Department of Home Missions.

The latter includes intercity teams, women's Bible school teams, and muscle teams. Opportunities for extended and career missionary work will also be discussed.

The festivals will begin late this month (September) or early in October and will continue regularly through November.

The first day of each festival will include a media presentation on the mission of the church; the second day will include the singing of the Lost and Found and testimonies of returning delegations who have participated in summer missionary outreach; the third day will feature a challenge to Johannesburg, South Africa.

Rev. Dushan is an American citizen serving as pastor in the Republic of South Africa. He is a graduate of Nazarene Theological Seminary.

Mr. Richard Gammill will be on campus October 29, 30, and 31. Appointments with him may be scheduled by contacting Mrs. Faye Riley in Warner 112 or by calling 536-2. Appointments will also be arranged for anyone interested in becoming a career missionary.

Birchard Spooked!

Bobard Gym is strictly for the cells of athletes as they compete for victory, and enthusiastic spectators as they cheer and applaud. Right? Wrong?

Lately there have been strange sounds coming from the dark shadows of the old Birchard.

"I first heard it one night while sitting alone in the swimming pool. I was certain it was girls singing but I discovered that the rhythmic tones I was hearing were not girls. The building had been cleared," said senior lifeguard Ray Baker.

Ray called Mrs. Hodge to come listen to the "weird" noises. The two then left the empty gym in a hurry.

Stephen Nielsen and Orvid Young of Olivet Nazarene College will present their first duo-piano concert of the year at 8:30 p.m. Friday, November 1 in Chalfant Hall on ONC campus.

Nielsen, soon to complete his Master's Degree at Indiana University, has had many prizes and honors awarded to him, including the coveted Guy Maier Award for piano excellence in 1967. He has performed on television in American, European, and Latin American cities, and has recorded for BIR in Britain. In 1972, Nielsen represented the United States at the Queen Elizabeth International Piano Competition in Brussels.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Indiana University, Nielsen has joined the faculty of ONC as Artist in Residence.

Young, pianist, organist, arranger on the faculty of the Olivet Nazarene College Department of Music is also conductor of the Kankakee Symphony Orchestra. He has toured as a concert artist to virtually every major city in North America as well as England, Korea and Japan. In addition, he has many albums to his credit, having recorded in major studios and halls of New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Nashville and London. Young's formal training has been principally at ONC and at Chicago Musical College of Roosevelt University.

Nielsen and Young will be performing two musical works written by J.S. Bach—"Magnificat" and "Brandenburg Concerto No. 2." Other numbers will be "Duetto Con Concertante" by Busoni, "Rondo, op. 73 in C Major" by Chopin, "Concertino, Op. 94 in A Minor" by Shostakovich and the "Foolish Fire Dance" by Manuel De Falla, arr. Mario Bragotti.

The concert is open to the public and there is no admission charge.

John Alexander handled the books, and Glenn Phillips, the parties.

Success, as always, depends on more than the leaders and each member of the 74-75 Student Council added to it. Smooth, efficient operation lended to the overall success of this year’s Associated Student Government.

PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY
may cause you to wonder.
That's what philosophy is.
WONDERING

To philosophize
is to wonder about life —
about right and wrong,
love and loneliness,
war and death,
about freedom, truth, beauty, time . . .
and a thousand other things.

To philosophize
is to explore life.
It means breaking free
to ask questions.
It means resisting
easy answers.
To philosophize
is to seek in oneself
the courage to ask
painful questions.

But if, by chance,
you have already asked
all your questions
and found all the answers —
if you're sure you know
right from wrong,
and whether God exists,
and what justice means,
and why men fear and hate and pray —
if indeed you have done your wondering about freedom and love and loneliness and those thousand other things,
then the Philosophical Society will waste your time.

Philosophy is for those who are willing to be disturbed with a creative disturbance.

Philosophy is for those who still have the capacity for wonder.¹

¹A modification of the prelude to Christian's Philosophy.

HOME-EC

Home Economics Club is organized not only to have fun but to familiarize its members into Home Economics as a field and a profession. It is mainly concerned with improving the quality of life through education and developing services.

During the year the club members presented demonstrations and attempted conferences to further this goal. A style show was also presented at Homecoming.

In October, Olivet's Home Economics Department was one of two colleges throughout the United States selected to participate in a survey of the Tupperware Market Research Division. They are proud of this recognition.

ACTIVITIES

Ollie Follies

The doldrum of early fall weekends was broken by the "comic" relief provided by this year's Ollie Class Follies. Fun filled the day and evening with many activities, pitting each of the classes against each other in fierce competition. There were the traditional events, such as the bathtub fill, human pyramid, wheelbarrow race, and flag-football tournament. New activities included the pie eating, seed spitting and hula hoop contests. Skits and talent provided the entertainment throughout the evening.

When it was all over, the Seniors had piled up the most points and walked off with top honors. The Juniors were resigned to sit and think, "Wait 'till next year".

SLAVE SALE

Bonnie and Clyde, gangsters, good music and a night of fun, highlighted the annual slave sale. Seven lovely freshmen girls and three handsome upper-classmen guys were sold to the highest bidders, then treated to bowling and a pizza party compliments of the Social Committee.

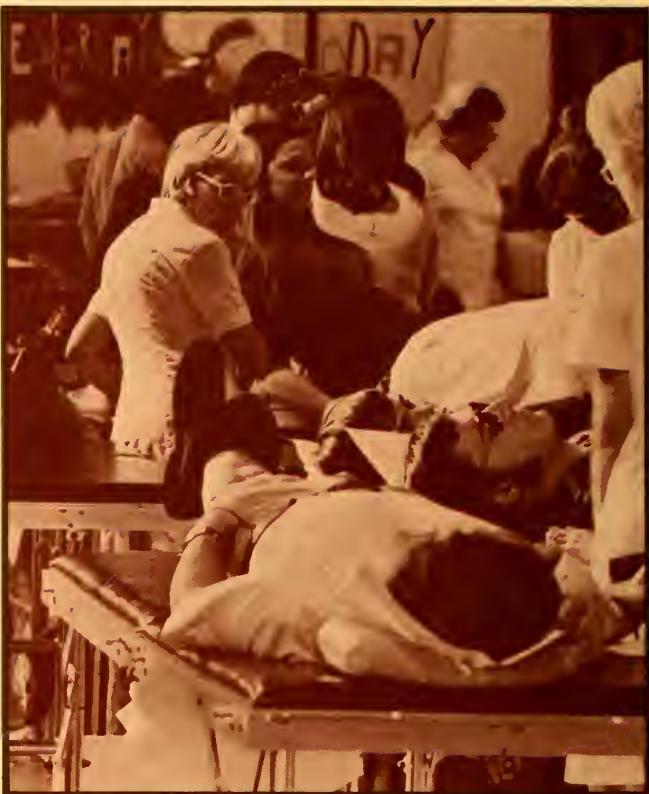

BLOODMOBILE

First, two lines of tables, blood-typing, and a few quick questions, then prick goes the needle and a nurse looks into your eyes and smiles as she slowly drains out a pint of life-maintaining hemoglobin. This year 196 students and faculty participated in the blood drive. Others were rejected because of age, fever, cold, medical history, weight and lack of sleep. Bloodmobile was considered a major success with more participation than in past years.

Circle K, a civic action club, sponsored the Bloodmobile and stressed giving as the reason for participation. Bloodmobile was just a part of the caring, sharing emphasis of Circle K. So, grab a place in line, roll up your sleeve and give a little.

FESTIVAL OF YOUTH IN MISSIONS

Olivet's first Festival of Youth in Missions was held October 30-November 1. The three chapel services of this series featured a multi-media presentation, a concert by the "Lost and Found", and a devotional by Rev. W. C. Dishon from Johannesburg, R.S.A.

Interviews for Christian Action Teams, Student Mission Corps, and "Lost and Found" were held during the festival. Students were given opportunities to offer themselves for summer Christian service as well as to investigate careers in missions.

GUEST LECTURERS FALL, 1974

The authors of Self-Love and Kids Say the Darndest Things appeared on Olivet's campus October 31 and November 2.

Robert Schuller spoke on his own version of optimism, possibility thinking, and self-confidence.

Art Linkletter, crusader against drug abuse, emphasized everyone's responsibility in overcoming "America's drug psyche".

MAP

In a unique chapel service on September 23, 1974, Mr. Ray Knight, president of the Medical Assistance Program, challenged Olivet students to help with the needs of people in poverty and disaster areas around the world. His challenge was met by 105 students who volunteered 327 man-hours to help send supplies to the earthquake survivors in Honduras.

Here Olivet students show again Christian love in action by helping those in need. A special thanks is extended to all those who participated.

When you're down and troubled,
And you need a helping hand...
You've got a friend.

SENIOR PARTY

The annual senior class party was organized by Tracy Lewis. It featured the memories of ONC seniors from their childhood and long ago days at Oli-tech.

The class of '75 will be remembered for its musical talents as displayed by the Beach Boys and the Kazoo Band, the great influence of the Mickey Mouse Club, and the many memories of Edith and Archie Bunker.

JR CLASS PARTY

Overcoming nearly impossible circumstances, the Junior Class pulled off one of the best Halloween parties in several years. Three different locations were considered and rejected before the Rock Creek area of the state park was chosen. Then, three weeks of hard work, scary (gross) ideas, and a lot of fun. Finally, it was the night and what a night it was.

The Walk of Death, or maybe the Stumble of Death, was the highlight of the party. Winding through an old creek bed, ONC students viewed ten scenes provoking varying degrees of shock and fear. Screams and ghouls, gasps and monsters, all came together to present a unique visual and sensual experience.

Then back to the pavillion for doughnuts, cider or hot chocolate and entertainment. After music provided by Jimmy Holmes, came the rat-infested film, "Willard." The entire chilling, thrilling experience was intensified by a persistent North wind lending to all shivers of fear.

"A WALK OF DEATH"

Trick Or

The moon was full and the dorm halls were permeated with witches, goblins, ghosts, vampires and all the other creatures that made this year's Trick or Treat a monstrous smash.

After all the sacks were filled with treats and no more tricks could be pulled, everyone trooped over to Ludwig for a party sponsored by the freshman class. Ludwig looked a little like Transylvania as those who dressed up paraded in front of the judges and were judged for the best costumes. Shortly after the judging, entertainment was provided by the Charlie Brown Pumpkin Choir and more flicks.

MANHATTAN PROJECT

The Manhattan Project is made up of exceptionally gifted musicians, committed to sharing the Gospel through their music. As a group, their country-rock sound and evangelistic message is exciting and redemptive, making them a vital part of a ministry.

They were accompanied by the New York Christian Theater, a company of Christian actors and actresses in the Manhattan Church of the Nazarene. Their talents are utilized in church services, special programs, and on television in the sharing of the Gospel.

The "Manhattan Project Touring Company" appearance on campus was partially sponsored by the Cultural Affairs Committee. The purpose of the presentation, "Resurrecting the Arts through the Power of the Resurrection," is to challenge young adults to the possibilities and need for the urban ministry.

TRUTH IN CONCERT

TRUTH, a musical group of 16 singers and musicians, came to Olivet November 8 for an all school concert sponsored by the Viking Male Chorus.

The group included a brass section, guitar and vocal parts, all with the aim of "using music as a tool to share Christ."

HOECOMING

Homecoming 1974: A packed campus and a packed schedule. Hundreds of families and alumni poured onto the campus November 15 and 16 for the long awaited week-end. Old friends enjoyed meeting again, new acquaintances were made, and memories were revived.

Every minute was a busy one. Games, concerts, a parade, smorgasbord, play, fashion show, wrestling, and even a Frisbee contest were important facets of the weekend. Many varied interests were covered to get everyone involved.

The joint effort of the students, faculty and staff made this year's Homecoming a success. Ted Lee, Alumni Secretary, reports an increase in attendance of alumni. In spite of the rainy weather, many turned out to view the parade.

Homecoming 1974 was quite a memorable weekend.

JB A CONTEMPORARY OF JOB

JB, A Pulitzer Prize winning play of 1959, was written by Archibald MacLeish. It tells the story of a business executive, a contemporary Job, who suffers the catastrophic disintegration of family, friends, business and health.

The production of JB by the Speech Dept. introduced Olivet to Readers' Theatre. In this dramatic form, performers are interpreters suggesting characters, rather than actors representing them.

REFLECTIONS
ON THE
STAR
CHRISTMAS
1974

"Reflections on the Star" - this year's theme for the Christmas Party was well represented in the simple but beautiful decorations and entertainment which directed all to reflect on their first Christmas. After the meal, prepared by S.A.G.A., "Personal Reflections" on the meaning of Christmas were shared by Dr. Bob Kirkpatrick, Miss Diane Wright, and Dr. Max Reams. "Childhood Reflections" - a short skit presented by the students, allowed everyone to remember "how it used to be." Miss Valter and Bruce Banks then presented the Christmas Story with Alan Exley leading the students in Christmas carols. The party was uniquely drawn to a close with Glenn Phillips dedicating the party to the students of O.S.C.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

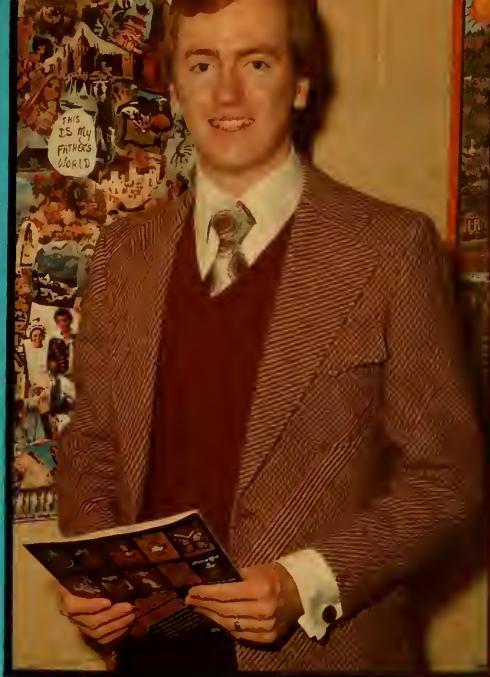

COLLEGE CHURCH

College Church an integral part of the college life at ONC. This year it held three revivals and many concerts for the college students. To many students it is their home church away from home and the staff headed by Rev. Bill Draper make it that way. The success of a student at ONC is demonstrated by the fine church services held here at College Church.

SPIRITUAL LIFE IN HIS STEPS IN SERVICE

"In His Steps, in Service," was this years Spiritual Life theme presented to the student body by leader Mark York. Mark not only challenged the students to become involved through their giving of offering in Chapel, but also by reaching out and using their talents through such programs as Gospel Crusaders, Evangelists, S.O.C. Scope, Missions in Action, Basic, and Collegians for Christ.

Weekend services at churches, visits to nursing homes and patients' hospitals, and sessions in drawing closer to each other not only found students closer to Christ but "In His Steps in Service."

Dr. George Dunbar, director

"A Ministry in Music" was again upheld in the Orpheus tradition this year. The 58 voices were carefully chosen by its director, Dr. George Dunbar. A picnic opened the choir's year, followed by a full day's retreat at the Westbrook Church of the Nazarene. Orpheus travelled to sing at the Indianapolis First Church of the Nazarene and Broadview, Illinois Wesleyan Church. The choir participated in the Homecoming Concert and presented a chapel program on December 6.

The spring semester, including the annual spring tour on April 23-27, was busy with concerts in Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan. A spring banquet in Chicago ended the semester's activities.

VIKING MALE CHORUS

This year represents the thirtieth anniversary of the founding of the Viking Male Chorus. In 1944-45, Prof. George Snyder organized the Viking Male Chorus to accomplish a ministry summarized by the choir's motto, "For Thee We Sing."

Under the direction of the conductor, Curtis K. Brady, the 55-voice Viking Male Chorus celebrated its anniversary year with an exhaustive, exciting, and effective season of activities. The Vikings sang concerts in the states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin, including appearances in churches, service clubs, high schools, colleges, and television, highlighted by an appearance on the Easter Sunday program of the Sunday Evening Club of Chicago on channel 11, WTTW. As a special feature of the "Viking Weekend," the Vikings sponsored the campus appearance of the musical group, "Truth."

Prof. Irving Kranich, director.

A European tour from December 27 through January 7 was the highlight of the year for the 57 lovely gals who comprised Treble Clef Choir, under the direction of Prof. Irving Kranich. Each of the girls sold M & M's candy in their home churches to help finance the trip.

Spring tour took place from February 26-March 2. Other activities for the choir included concerts at several churches, participation in the Homecoming Concert, a chapel program, a spring concert during Mother-Daughter Weekend, and a banquet. Handbell Choir, comprised of nine girls from the choir, provided an excellent musical experience for the concerts.

ORATORIO CHORUS

This year marked the 40th year of Handel's "Messiah" presentations. The Oratorio Chorus, Olivet Orchestra, and selected soloists were under the baton of Mrs. Naomi Larsen for the December 6 and 8 performances. The student soloists for Friday's concert included soprano Pat Wright; contralto Karen Culver; tenor Dennis Crocker; and bass David Myers. The guest soloists for the performance on Sunday evening included: Judy Markee Jones, soprano; Cheryl Meyering Brown, contralto; Willis Baldridge, tenor; and Gary Moore, bass.

During the spring semester, Oratorio Chorus rehearsed Rossini's "Stabat Mater" with Prof. Ovid Young directing. The performance was on March 15, accompanied by the Kankakee Symphony Orchestra.

ORCHESTRA

Prof. Ovid Young, director

Strings, winds, and percussion conducted by Prof. Ovid Young formed the Olivet Orchestra. The orchestra accompanied Olivet's three choirs at Homecoming in performance of Bill Gaither's "Alleluia." The orchestra also accompanied the "Messiah" performances and the student soloists for the Commencement Concert. A spring concert featured interesting orchestral literature.

The Wind Ensemble's first tour to Europe took place May 27-June 10. Many fund-raising activities were sponsored by the group, including presenting the U.S. Navy Band on campus for two performances on April 18.

The Wind Ensemble, under the baton of Dr. Harlow Hopkins, began its year with a picnic and retreat at Beckman Park in Kankakee. The Wind Ensemble was privileged to feature Dr. Eugene Rousseau, well-known saxophonist, and the Indiana University Saxophone Quartet in the ensemble's fall concert on November 22.

The spring tour to northern Indiana was February 12-23. April 26 was a highlight in the ensemble's season. The three Olivet choirs and Wind Ensemble combined for a "homecoming-away-from-home" concert in Whiting Auditorium in Flint, Michigan. Gaither's "Alleluia" was featured. Other activities included a weekend trip, a banquet, and performance at Commencement exercises.

CONCERT SINGERS

A spring concert on campus featuring the Concert Singers, directed by Dr. George Dunbar, presented operatic and popular music. Several concerts were performed, including Homecoming participation, chapel programs, and several church concerts in Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and also at Canadian Nazarene College, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada. The choir was also privileged to present entertainment for the Valentine Banquet at Mid-America Nazarene College.

Olivet's young Tigers, due to inexperience, had a rough season, winning two dual meets. They did, however, place in the invitational meets. For three of the runners, this was their first experience running a cross-country course. Coach Wilson's top two harriers, Dave Leatherman and Kent Lamb usually matched stride for stride after running an average of 2,500 miles a year together. These two national qualifiers brighten the outlook for future teams as they both have two seasons remaining. The hundreds of miles paid off with Leatherman's best four mile time of 20:56 and Lamb clocking a 21:34.

The other members of the team include Dave Veannes, Gordon Arnold, Phil Miller, Mike Perry and John Briles, who with a year's experience and improvement should help the tigers in the next few seasons.

A win is to be rewarded, a loss is to be a lesson and the 1973-74 season brought home all the lessons any team could ever want. The lessons include things like playing more than eight home games, don't include drives of three to five hours to an away game, and don't play five games straight on the west coast. These and other lessons were taught by a 12/15 season record.

This season's boastful 25 and 3 mark proved that all was well learned.

Head coach C.W. Ward, assistant coach Frank Wilson, and team captain Ralph Hodge provided the leadership needed to mold the Tigers into the most impressive teams ever.

The experience and special touch of Dan Fowler, Ted Allen, and Jim Shoff, and the young and promising Gerald Steagall, contributed to the best scoring and rebounding combination to be found in Illinois.

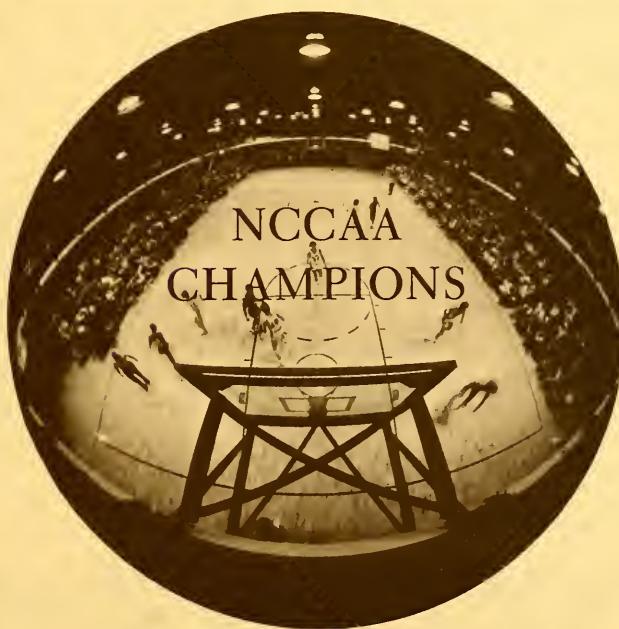

Olivet probably would not have been as successful without the aid of a sound bench. Dave Skelton, Denny Owens, Sam Harris, Fred Fullerton and Ron McLean were used on numerous occasions in some of the tightest of situations.

In looking towards the future we will find missing the hussle and the muscle of "Dandy Dan" Fowler. His rebounding, defense, and added scoring punch make the difference of a win or a loss.

Also missing will be the greatest of individual basketball dynasties to pass through Olivet thus far. Senior Ralph "Tres" Hodge has been a name of delight, pride, and praise for four basketball seasons at O.N.C.

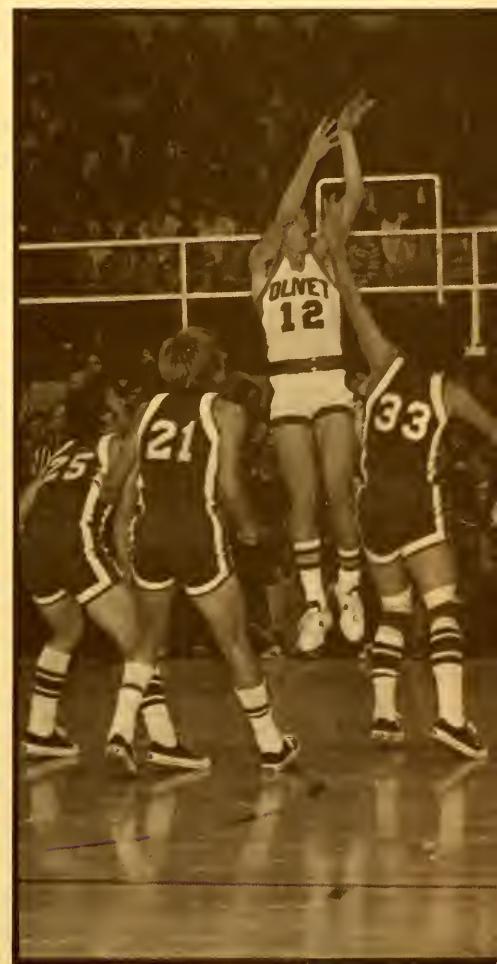

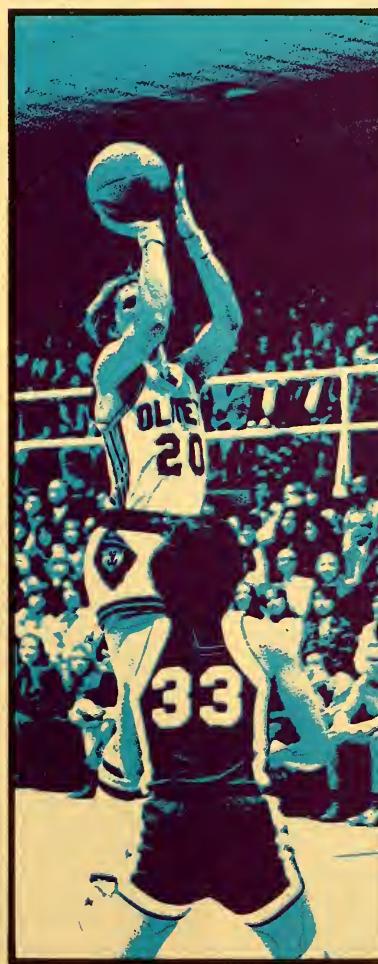

Dan and Tres were the only members of the senior class on the squad. Coach Ward has a lot to look forward to next season with the addition of two new transfers, who will have to fill the vacancy these two greats left behind.

Olivet's Junior Varsity of the past have been known for their team hustle; this years team was no exception. The J. V.'s started off the season against a very tough Alumni team. Experience gained from playing the Alumni helped Coach Wilson put together a much stronger team. Being a smaller team, our roundballers utilized a running attack, which made for an exciting game for our Olivet fans to watch.

This years team was led by Sophomores Gary Smith, Dave Skelton, Dennis Owens, and Dan Rexroth. From this elite group Coach Ward has much to look forward to next season.

The 1974-75 O.N.C. wrestling season resulted in being one of great success. Coach Larry Watson with co-captains Chuck Kelley and Tom Allen lead the team to a 10-1 dual meet campaign mark. This was the best win loss record in the four year history of O.N.C. wrestling.

Some of the highlights of the season went as follows: Homecoming victory over Trinity College; Second place honors at the Concordia Invitational Tourney; Tenth place at 22 team tourney at North Central College; Fourth place finish at Huntington Invitational; Second place finish at National Christian College Athlete Association Invitational Tourney; Grapplers bringing home first team trophy in O.N.C. wrestling history.

Special mention can be given to freshman Randy Johnson who posted the first perfect individual record for regular season competition at 21-0. In looking ahead one can only expect the best as the team will have all of its members returning.

TIGER BASEBALL

The 1974 baseball season could be characterized by a roller coaster. It seemed that luck would not come to the aid of the Tigers. The tide would turn one way or another as quickly as the ups and downs of Coney Island's most popular attraction. After losing only two seniors from last year's 20-9 team, it looked as though the 1974 edition of the Tigers was set for another very successful season. But fate ruled in the opposite direction, and Coach Larry Watson watched his charges drop eight games by one run to finish with a 14-13 overall record. Dan Fowler, last season's leading hurler, was the luckless pitcher on most occasions as he lost five one-run decisions while maintaining a respectable 3.24 earned run average. Dennis Wadsworth led the pitching staff with a 5-2 record, followed by Kevin Johnson (5-3), Gary Newsome (1-0), Paul Stevenson (2-2), and Fowler (1-6).

Inconsistencies, errors, and bad breaks plagued the Tigers both in the field and at bat. Bright spots in the Tigers' attack included 67 stolen bases in 71 attempts. The team batting average showed a commendable .264 with five players hitting .300 or better. Ralph Hodge led the offense with a fine .402 average followed by Jon Nelson (.338), Tim Alderson (.320), Gary Newsome (.304), and Gary Ingle (.303).

Paul Carlson returns ball during doubles action

Shafer and Rexroth prepare for their next return

The 1974 edition of the Olivet tennis team was led by the able coaching of Harry Fulton. Pairing the team at number 1 singles was freshman Paul Carlson. Playing number 2 and voted 1974 MVP was little Steve Shafer, a freshman. The number 3 spot was held down by freshman Dan Rexroth and rounding out the "top four" was junior Tom Dunaway. Also playing singles were junior Denny Hatton, number 5, junior Ken Holstien, number 6, and freshman Randy Hodges. The number 1 doubles paired Shafer and Rexroth, in number 2 doubles Carlson and Dunaway teamed.

The Tigers played a tough schedule and came up with a respectable record. Coach Fulton has nothing to be ashamed of and 1975 looks even better. Good year coach and great days ahead.

Men's Intramural Football

Intramural Football All-Stars

The 1974 flag-football season provided fans and players with many surprises. Last year's top team, Beta, ended up almost in the cellar. Zeta survived the tough schedule and came out on top. Once again, just like a bouncing football, the season was unpredictable and nobody knew for sure until the last scores were in. The final standings show:

Zeta	6	2	2
Delta	6	4	0
Gamma	4	4	2

Beta	3	5	1

The play at times was of an excellent caliber while other times things were quite sloppy. Overall the main goal of intramurals was achieved. Over 50 men enjoyed exercise and playing a game they love.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Women's intercollegiate tennis this year was led by Senior Mary Rader. Playing in her fourth year, Mary turned in many fine performances as No. 1 singles. The No. 2 spot was held down by Junior Moya Sheirborn in her third year. Playing No. 3 was Sophomore Kim Ward and No. 4 was Senior Carol Albaugh. Rounding out the team were Carol Skalak, No. 5; Sandy Easterly, No. 6; Jane Hussong, and Joy Humphries.

Coach Accord is proud of the lady netters and is making big plans for the future. One of the team's goals is the purchase of uniforms for the girls. Next year should be great for women's intercollegiate tennis.

Olivet's girls intercollegiate basketball team was something of beauty to watch. The girls in their new uniforms had an up and down season. When things were going right the girls won, and won big. They also had many games when it just wouldn't fall into place.

The team was led by Mary Radar, Kim Vorce, Carol Skalak, Tammy Adler and Lark Hintz. Each player was a great asset to Coach Doenges, giving her plenty of height and speed. In the few years that Olivet has had a girl's intercollegiate team, we have made ourselves one of the most respectable teams in the state.

WOMEN'S

Women's intercollegiate volleyball provided fans with exciting action this year. Playing a tough schedule, the girls turned in a 3-6 season. But the play was better than the record indicates; several matches were extremely close. Standout players were Carol Skalak, Carol Albaugh, Sue Kelts, Cindy Eleveld (not pictured), and Tammy Alder.

The ONC Swim Club is one of Olivet's new health clubs. The organization boasts a 45 man roster with approximately 25 to 30 of the members active.

The club is interested in those individuals that like to swim whether it be for conditioning purposes, improvement of watermanship, or for recreational enjoyment, and extends an invitation for membership to all interested.

There is also a ladies branch which is interested in the enjoyment of women's watermanship. There are hopes that both the Mens and Womens Swim Clubs can become the basis for future Olivet swimming teams.

Stormy, Stormy Night
All the ~~sky~~ were black and gray
King Pilot's face was lined in pain
Knowing he had set the wrong man free

Three crosses on a hill
Oh, the sight the soul to thrill
Seeing Christ willingly killed
But knowing that soon our Lord would rise

Now I think I know
What you're trying to say to me
Why you suffered all that agony
Why you died to set us free
But they did not listen, few are listening still
But soon all men will

They did not love you,
But still your love was true
And when no hope was left in sight
On that stormy stormy night
You gave your Life as only you could do
And I now know Jesus
This world has never seen one as loving as You

— S. McGraw

The trouble of loneliness
was outlasting the time when the soul from a laugh could round me.

Stop! Let me

At you! You know too?

Won't it help if we talked it over?

How friend!

Yes, then we can break its grasp
On me, and
Fill to you.

J. Cole

Seeing you again was like looking through an old photo album,
Finding a four-leaf clover
and feeling hope for the coming day, Turning around and seeing something new,
but feeling something old,
Thinking everything had changed,
although, your face stayed the same,
Trying to remember how I once felt,
and knowing I felt it now.
Being afraid of being hurt,
then thanking God for the chance to know you,
Hugging your neck and saying,
"hi, it's been a long time!"
Knowing that nothing is the same,
but that everything is alright.
Seeing you again was hoping that I would see you more often.

Walkin' in the breeze
Lookin' at the trees
Sometimes life is so simple . . .
Holding his hand
You know he'll understand
Sometimes life is so simple . . .
But then comes the part I don't understand
You reach out to touch him . . .
But where is his hand?
You walk in the breeze —
A storm comes along
You touch a leaf, it crumbles, it's gone . . .

Becky Burchfield

I shout at Death and say,
"Be gone! O wretched thief, I pray.
There is no room for you in this house
Take up thy cloak, be on thy way!

Away with thy stench of dreadful fears,
Which fill the soul with sordid tears.
You have already stolen the man of this house
Whose hands gave us strength for many years.

His philosophy for life was wise,
And a smile would gleam in his Irish eyes.
A special gift he had with words
And an everlasting love for his wife.

So, leave us now, you fateful thief,
And let our hearts so filled with grief,
Remember only those days he was here
And forget you, Death with all your fear.

Two times, he voiced the shout.
But the old man refused to hear
Bowed his head to hide the tear.
The drop of loneliness reached his chin.
The youth stood back and looked within
His own heart and knew the man,
Said a prayer and reached out again.
The old man turned and turning, heard,
Heard the love, the care, the word
Raised his head to view the lad
Felt the loss that made him sad
But let his heart begin to mend
Opened his eyes and found a friend.

D. Vickery

In vision, yet apart
We travel the road into the woods
Grass grows between us
And clay hardens our back
Still we continue
Deeper into the woods
Deeper into the past
To memories we cherish

D. Vickery

Just Outside

Through lacy patterns painted on my window
in the night
I see a rose like silver
shining in the hazy light

In sadness it reminds me of a flower
once before
That bloomed outside my window and the girl I picked it for

But with descending autumn
came an unsuspected frost
And soon the unprotected flower faded
and was lost

Now as the night grows deeper as I look myself I see
Reflected on the window
in the crystal poetry

Perhaps someday in darkness
she'll gaze beyond her casement
Dreaming through the silvered glass and see the rose that I sent
And in the sad reflection
of that delicate design
Perhaps she'll see the words
that I once painted on her mind

Leaves

I have often walked in the fall
And reflected on the paradox of beauty in death.

An indication of quick approaching sleep,
Leaves magnificently color the trees and ground.

Missappen, crushed, orange-red remanents
of life,
Leaves blow away in an October cyclone,
Autumn darts, they collect in disarray
against fences and walls,

Flung by the unseen hand that moves the clouds. by b. vickery

God knows, we've tried, and we've even reached the point where we could blow up everybody, including ourselves.

Teach us how to listen carefully
and patiently to other people.

Teach us how to say what we have to say clearly, simply, and openly.

Teach us what responsibility toward you and others really means.

I'm proud of where he bought
my diamond!

Will she be proud or embarrassed when friends ask where you bought her diamond? And, will you be embarrassed about the price you paid for the quality received? Today, there are no "bargains" in diamonds. You save no more—often lose—when you try to cut corners. Your knowledgeable American Gem Society member jeweler—one with a local reputation to safeguard and standards to maintain—is your wisest choice. Moreover, she will be proud to know her diamond came from us. Don't disappoint her.

"I SHALL NOT PASS THIS WAY BUT ONCE"

Life is more than an accumulation of years. It is the sum total of experiences and the resulting reactions to outside influences. One never just marks time on the journey of life, but is continually affecting the lives of others while at the same time being molded by the pressures of life. For life to be rich, beautiful and full of meaning, there must be outward as well as upward growth. In addition to the ever present absorption of new ideas and concepts, there must be the tender edge of giving and sharing of new ideas and excitements of newly-discovered knowledge.

Young lives may easily be influenced . . . there is not always another opportunity to guide a life, for life itself moves at too rapid a pace. One must be alert to new ideas, and in providing the impetus for change in others we ourselves often are better and the richer.

I find it a challenge to be at Olivet among such creative and alert people! I often ask myself, "are my students sharing new facts and experiences as a result of being in contact with my life to the degree that I am gaining from sharing in their experiences?" If true then, "I shall not pass this way but once. Lord give me guidance to have the right attitude and the kind of life which shall at all times instill the highest ideals in young people."

H. A. Collins, Associate Professor of English

The year has come and gone so quickly. I have never been more amazed with Olivetians as I have this year with my year book staff . . . they're great and deserve much praise for their work and effort. And many thanks go to Dr. Strickler for his advice on the yearbook and to American Yearbook Company for the publication this year.

Truly this has been one of the most exciting years of college for me. It is something that I will never forget and will always cherish, even though there were times when I wanted to pack my bags and forget the whole mess. But the theme "I shall pass this way but once" kept ringing in my mind that I must do my best to help others. God has done so many good things for me and I just want to praise His name for all the love and care that He has had for me and my staff. The book is yours and let God live in your heart and show in your life.

In Christ,

Augie
